

"We took our kids to Squonk and we all loved the show!
This is better than any of the old retread shows currently on Broadway. We loved the music, the costumes, the puppetry, the images and the exciting unpredictability of the show.
Hats off to this innovative and creative troupe!"

SQUONK OPERA

"Saw Squonk at P.S. 122 and loved it.
Saw the show last night on Broadway and love it even more!" - Howard Broxson

"Well, I saw the show this evening and have to say that it was the BEST theatrical experience of my life.
I was in such a state of euphoria.
I found the show's messages to be touching,
heartfelt, and most importantly, highly emotional.
From the beginning of the show,
I was choked with tears because I found your 'world'
to be so beautiful and hopeful.
THANK YOU for the experience.
Broadway definitely needs more of this."
- Patrick M. Santoro

"I can't get this show off my mind!
I wish I could see it 5 more times.
'Leave your conscious mind behind'
gave me permission to not worry about what it 'meant.'
Instead, I was transported away from my everyday, routine, predictable existence into a fantasy of sheer delight!
It was a sense of freedom we rarely get in this world.
Thank you!" - Andrea Mógab

"We saw another new musical the night before your show and were so disappointed! There were four of us... and we were all nodding off! We really needed a GREAT performance to restore our faith in the theater and Squonk did it...beautifully. Thanks a lot!"

"The show was breathtaking!
I have never seen someone play the djembe like that EVER!!!!
Plus Jackie D rocks this world!!!
I wish I would have gotten the chance to see it more than once!"

"I recently saw your show in New York and was greatly taken aback by it.
On the same trip, having seen Rent,
Lion King and Les Miserables,
Squonk by far dominated them.
It is an extremely well-done piece of art by amazing artists themselves.
I hope this will encourage future shows of the like."

"I had no idea what to expect from Squonk. The name gives away nothing and my friends, who had already seen at least one performance, were being equally vague. Now I know why: I was blown away. Nothing they could have said would have done the show justice. It was a spiritual, mythical and intellectual journey that I was not expecting and found myself quite willing to go on with you. Thank you for that!" - Pam Cunningham

"I felt the show opened so many areas of visual ecstasy and magic for me! As an active theatre professional since 1989, it has saddened me to no end that shows like yours don't get more credit. I think critics who think they know a show REALLY don't know much more about any other mediums in terms of 'theatrical spectacle.' They beat to death revivals, and more revivals. Of course, the revivals are a winner with the tourists, but what about the onlookers who need NEWNESS to keep their palates satiated?" - Rt2party

"Saturday's show was magnificent; drenched with spectacle and emotion. I wept at the horrible beauty, laughed at the guy in the plaid."
- Demmler Schenck

"I just saw Squonk with my Mom and Dad on Friday night. I liked it very much. I bought your CD and I like that, too. I'd like to help you wrap marshmallows - do you take 10-year old volunteers?"
- Jacob Shaffer-Berne

"I want to thank you for a fun time at the theater. Broadway needs more people like you to shake things up and keep it all interesting. P.S. I think I may have left my consciousness at the theater. If you find it, could you please send it back? I'll pay the postage." - Steve Kopian

"I just found out that tomorrow is your last performance on Broadway. I am sorry to say that I cannot attend because I am back at college, in Kentucky. It saddens me deeply to see that Broadway has let go of such amazing and inspiring talent. You guys changed my life. You brought out in me a new way of seeing things. Buckets of gratitude." - Alina Pintos
